ORDER

This matter is before the court on defendant, Elycia Washington's unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [116]. Counsel has a scheduling conflict and also needs additional time to work out a resolution of this matter. For good cause shown,

IT IS ORDERED that the Motions to Continue Trial [116] is granted, as follows:

1. The jury trial, for all defendants, now set for November 2, 2021, is continued to January 3, 2022.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and January 3, 2022, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would deny continuity of counsel and counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(6), (7)(A) & (B)(iv).
3. A party may object to this order by filing an "Objection to Magistrate Judge's Order" no later than October 27, 2021. The objecting party must comply with all requirements of NECrimR 59.2.

DATED: October 20, 2021.
